

IAEA Interregional Training Course on Nuclear Power Infrastructure Development (ITC on NPID) in 2022

- Term: 7th-25th Nov, 2022
- Place: Tokyo, Fukushima, Fukui, Shizuoka
- Participants: 17 people from 11 countries (Ethiopia², Indonesia², Jordan, Morocco, Niger², Poland², Sri Lanka², Sudan, Thailand, Turkey², Uzbekistan)
- Summary: The purpose of ITC is to provide junior professionals from of government, regulatory body, future owner / operator or technical support organization in the countries that are actively preparing nuclear power infrastructure or have made a decision to embark on a new nuclear power program with an overview of the IAEA Milestones Approach and 19 nuclear infrastructure issues including nuclear safety, radiation protection and emergency preparedness as well as lessons learned from Fukushima Daiichi accident. Lectures, exercises, and site visits were conducted by experts from the IAEA and Japanese experts.

Opening Remarks

Group Photo in the Classroom

End of Document